

Roses in Springtime

Paul G. Sykes

Patsy Elaine Hitt Callender

$\text{J} = 180$

They say there are flow - er that bloom in the spring-time a clus - ter of
One day, we will rest in a calm peace - ful slum - ber, with flow - ers a -

D T A A B | 0 3. 4 5 6. 5 4 3 4 3 2 0 0 4. 4 4 4

ro - ses as sweet as can be. Then rain that comes soft, may en - hance its bove and a si - lence be - low. While flow - ers will grow, with a scent so love - li - ness, nev - er a - gain the sweet flow - ers we see. Soon there will be an - de - light - ful, ro - ses will grow and so quickly will fade. Ro - ses like life grow

D T A A B | 4 5 6 6 5 4 5 7 7 6 5 6 5 4 5 3

D T A A B | 4 2 0 3. 4 5 6. 5 4 6 5 4 3 6. 6 6 4 6

oth - er ap - pear - ing, burst - ing with life, new ro - ses are blooming. God gives us short - ly in pass - ing, soft pet - als soft, bright col - ors are shad - ed. Time to en - flow - ers that col - or springtime the beau - ti - ful flow - ers that bloom there for me.

D T A A B | 8 7 6 5 7 6. 6 6 4 6 5 4 3 5 7. 7 7 7

joy the bright signs al - lur - ing, the beau - ti - ful flow - er that bloom there for me.

D T A A B | 5. 4 3 6 4 2 0 1 3. 4 5 6. 5 4 6 5 4 3